

MARKET WELL SUPPLIED WITH SUMMER FRUITS

Vegetables and Fish Are on Hand in Sufficient Quantities to Meet
Any Reasonable Demand.

Lamb and Mutton Are Somewhat
Cheaper, While Less Desirable
Hens Record a Rise.

The markets of the city continue to be well supplied with summer fruits and vegetables, and poultry and fish are on hand in quantities to meet any demand. Few changes are to be noted in prices from those prevailing a week ago.

Hens are somewhat higher priced on the less desirable market, but on the better quality market are firm. On the meat benches lamb and mutton, which have been selling at high prices, are somewhat cheaper. Cuckers are also cheaper and burr artichokes have appeared on the produce benches.

Apples of all varieties are now coming on the market in quantities and can be bought at 10 cents a quarter peck. Prices today are as follows, and those who visit the markets tomorrow will find little or no change from them:

FISH PRICES ADVANCE.

Demand Continues Heavy Despite the Big Supply.

While the supply of many varieties of fresh fish is fairly good, the demand is heavy and the wholesale dealers at the wharf market are able to sell out practically every day. In consequence of this good demand prices have advanced during the past week, as high as $2 a barrel on trout, croakers and sea bass. Blues, rock, mackerel and other choice fish are not over plentiful and continue high in price. Trout and butterfish, it is stated, constitute the bulk of the supply. Prices this morning, the dealers say, ranged about as follows: Spanish mackerel, 15 cents a pound; blues, 20 to 25 cents a pound; rock, 15 to 18 cents a pound; sea bass, 10 to 15 cents a pound; white perch, 12 1/2 to 15 cents a pound; halibut, 16 cents a pound; spot, 10 to 11 cents a pound; Potomac bass, 20 to 25 cents a pound; eels, 5 and 10 cents each; catfish, 25 to 30 cents a bunch; gray trout, $6 to $12.50 a barrel; croakers, $12 to $13 a barrel; butterfish, $15 to $16 a barrel; sea bass, $12 to $14. Crabs are selling at 50 to 75 cents a dozen for soft and $2.50 to $3 a barrel for hard-shelled. Clams are worth 15 cents to $1 a hundred and oysters from 45 cents to $1 a bushel.

WALTONEN JUMPS OFF FAST MOVING EXPRESS

Man Accused of Murdering New York Widow Badly Injured While Trying to Escape.

NEW YORK, September 15.—Arthur Waltonen, who was arrested in Ironwood, Mich., in connection with the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Nichols, a wealthy widow of this city, leaped from the New York Central train on which he was being brought to this city in the custody of detectives early today as it passed through Harmon, N. Y. The train was brought to a stop, and Waltonen was found in a ditch beside the tracks, severely injured. He was brought to the city and hurried to a hospital. His condition is said to be serious.

According to Detectives Enwright and Fogarty, who had Waltonen in charge, the prisoner begged for permission to smoke. He was taken to the rear platform of the train, and, after rolling a cigarette, suddenly struck one of the detectives, knocking him against the other, and then leaped headfirst from the platform. He was knocked unconscious by the fall. At the hospital here it was said he is suffering from a fracture of the skull and internal injuries.

CHICAGO, September 14.—Arthur Waltonen, arrested at Ironwood, Mich., for complicity in the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Nichols, a wealthy New York widow, last September, has revealed to Chicago detectives some details of the crime.

Waltonen was arrested at Ironwood, Mich., and was brought through Chicago en route to New York. He said he would make a full confession to the district attorney at New York.

"I was working for Mrs. Nichols," he said. "She seemed to take a fancy to me, and said she liked me. I had a sweetheart in Mrs. Nichols' house and wanted to marry her. On the train, the door boy in the Nichols' mansion, knew Mrs. Nichols had about $75,000 worth of jewelry in the house, and that it was the jewels they wanted. Waltonen fell in love with a girl in Ironwood who has promised to stand by him and marry him after he gets out of trouble, he said.
